

MASTERING VOCABULARY: LANGUAGE LEARNING AND TEACHING

Please join us in a round-table and discussion on Pedagogy that will be moderated by the Department of Spanish and Portuguese's very own Dr. Diana Frantzen!

Four academics from various departments at UW-Madison will join us in providing their perspectives on vocabulary learning and teaching from points of view that range from teaching itself to research and awareness.

Our presenters include:

Andrea Cudworth (Department of Linguistics)

"Vocabulary and Menominee Revitalization"

Elise Hopman (Department of Psychology)

"A Big Data Investigation into Predictors of Early Second Language Word Learning Accuracy"

Carlos Andrés Rojas (Department of Spanish and Portuguese)

"Story-telling TPR to Facilitate Vocabulary Intake"

Hilary Emerson (Department of French and Italian)

"Vocabulary in Context: Infusing Information Gap Activities with Culture"

Following the presentations from the academics listed above, there will be time for questions and discussion after. We hope to see you there and we look forward to a lively discussion!

light refreshments will be provided just outside our room
